DevWorks International Welcomes New Board Member

Washington, DC. (June 22, 2020) – DevWorks International is pleased to welcome Byron Radcliffe, CEO, and President of Equal Access International (EAI), to its Board of Directors.

Byron draws on over 30 years of experience in international development and finance to drive innovative growth. Byron's expertise as an executive leader includes leading corporate administration, strategic business planning, finance, and compliance departments. He is actively involved in project implementation around the world and has been responsible for overseeing regional offices in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

Byron's 16-year tenure on the Board of the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the Society for International Development culminated in a four-year term as Chairman and now as Ex-Officio Board member. He has also served on other Boards and Advisory groups including the Humentum Government Advisory Council and the Board of Directors of the Mines Advisory Group (MAG) America.

"We are thrilled to welcome Byron to our Board of Directors at this important stage of DevWorks' evolution," stated Demetria Arvanitis, Chief Executive Officer of DevWorks. "As a highly respected and seasoned development professional with valuable industry experience, we look forward to Byron's expert engagement and assistance in guiding DevWorks' mission and objectives."

About DevWorks International
